ABOUT CHARRON MONAYE

After being denied by multiple traditional publishing companies and media outlets, Charron Monaye dared to step out on faith and birth her literary legacy. Born and raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Charron used her spiritual gift to pen stories that opened doors of opportunities. As a result, she is a best-selling & award-winning author, media contributor, and award-winning playwright who is walking in her purpose.

After having a winning poem published in the book Tears of Fear at the age of fourteen, she evolved her writing and now has a timeless catalog of published books, produced scripts, and featured articles.

In 2008, during her journey as an author, corporate uncertainty and financial desperation led her to become a juggernaut in the literary world with the formation of her inaugural entrepreneurial effort, Pen Legacy, LLC. A literary conglomerate, Charron birthed Pen Legacy, LLC. to give herself a platform to write, publish, and sell her products in hopes of making enough money to take care of her children. Since then, Pen Legacy, LLC. has evolved into a writing and book publishing service geared to helping aspiring writers share their stories by providing a platform to elevate their unique voices.

A woman of passion, vision, and purpose, Charron embodies the true spirit of walking in your calling. Since 2008, she has twenty published books within six genres, five Amazon best-sellers (with six-figure sales and various awards). Charron is a contributing author for 20+ book publications, ghostwriter, blogger, and editor-in-chief of madisonjaye.com. She also wrote and produced five sold-out theatrical productions in Hollywood, CA, Philadelphia, PA, Washington, D.C., and Manhattan, NY.

Charron is now gearing up to release her five-book children's series, Journey with Michelle, which introduces a child to travel, learning a foreign language, entrepreneurship, politics, and history.

TESTIMONIALS

NICOLE DEAS, AUTHOR & OWNER OF 1 SOURCE FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS, INC.

Charron Monaye has been an absolute Godsend! I have completed her mind-blowing 4- month author mastermind and republished my book under her company, Pen Legacy Publishing. My book is awesome! Plus, I am seeing consistent sales, booking press, and new clients. She is a #GEM! If you are serious about what you say you want, she is the #coach and #publisher for you. Awesome, full of knowledge, and demonstrates integrity. I will be with her for a while!

KINYATTA E. GRAY, AUTHOR AND OWNER OF FLIGHTS IN STILETTOS

As a coaching client, Charron has provided me with the great and not-so-great feedback about my ideas. This level of support enabled me to reflect and make better decisions as an author. Charron provided a listening ear when I was in a pickle with one of my projects. Availing herself spoke volumes about her concern for me as a client. I received valuable advice, effective and continuous communication, and the feeling that I have not joined a company but the Pen Legacy family.

PRECIOUS WILLIAMS, AUTHOR AND FOUNDER OF PERFECT PITCHES BY PRECIOUS

My experience with Pen Legacy, LLC. has sincerely exceeded my expectations in every way! When I started trying to write my book, I could not. Charron Monaye, the lead founder and book publisher, came to my rescue and set me straight. On my book's release day, it debuted at #1 on Amazon in 3 categories! After taking her mastermind, I rebranded my business, brand, and image. Thus, leading me to secure multiple press opportunities, speaking engagements, book reviews from prominent media publications, and partnerships and clients from Microsoft, LinkedIn, Google, and eBay, as well as Fortune 500 executives, speakers, and entrepreneurs. Through her company, she also helped me showcase my book ad on a digital billboard in Times Square! Forbes reviewed my book and showcased me in their magazine. I am still shocked!
